Thursday 26 May 2022: XTEK Limited (ASX: XTE, 'XTEK', 'Group') is pleased to announce that the Group's Ballistics Division, has received a Purchase Order for the rapid supply of HighCom body armour products from an undisclosed customer to the value of $9.5m.

Scott Basham, XTEK Group CEO, said,

"HighCom' is XTEK Group's global armour business, and it is the foundation of our Ballistics Division. Through our advanced manufacturing capabilities in Columbus, Ohio, and with our patented XTclave capability located in Adelaide, South Australia, we manufacture world-leading, ultra-lightweight and high-performance body armour plates and ballistic helmets. We supply these world-class, advanced personal protection ballistic products and solutions to militaries, law enforcement agencies, and first responder customers all around the world.

This new $9.5m order to quickly supply a regional customer with our high performance body armour products, is a further illustration of the Group's ability to support our customers' priority operational demands with little to no notice. XTEK's HighCom production teams have been working around the clock now for months to manufacture our highly sought after specialist ballistic products, and we continue to be very deeply engaged with many international customers to help them solve their urgent ballistic armour supply requirements".
